

PRIOR LEARNING
ASSESSMENT & RECOGNITION

Portfolio Development Courses

2005 - 2006

RED RIVER COLLEGE PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT COURSES

Red River College provides workshops and courses on how to develop and effectively use portfolios for a variety of purposes. Participants work through the process of portfolio development and produce a portfolio for personal growth, career development/professional purposes or for providing evidence of prior learning for post-secondary courses/programs. All courses include an introduction to Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR). Courses may be completed for credit in a number of college programs or for audit purposes.

PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT COURSE (40 HOURS)

Take the opportunity to identify, document and verify your prior learning from work and life experiences in a portfolio! This course provides you with the process, tools and information to explore your prior learning and develop a master portfolio. Through self study and facilitated learning with a course instructor, you will set education and career goals and document and verify your learning from work and life. The finished portfolio you produce can be used for many purposes.

CAREER PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT COURSE (30 HOURS)

Learn how to develop a career portfolio for use as an employment tool when seeking a promotion, when applying for employment with a prospective employer or as a tool for self-discovery, assessment and life long learning. In the course, you will identify, assess and document your knowledge, skills and abilities for your career portfolio.

PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP SERIES (16- 20 HOURS)

This series of workshops is designed for those who are graduating from a College/post-secondary program or who need a professional portfolio for entering or moving forward in a chosen career! Through the workshops, you collect documentation/evidence of learning, set goals, document learning (knowledge, skills and abilities) in a skills inventory, and compile a finished professional portfolio. You also acquire effective strategies for using your portfolio in an interview and other employment situations!

TRAIN THE TRAINER-PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT COURSE (24 HOURS)

Do you currently work with clients who could benefit from a professional portfolio? Do you teach in a College program where "soon to be" graduates could use a professional portfolio as they enter their chosen career? Do you want to acquire skills in professional portfolio development and facilitation? RRC is offering an exciting opportunity for you to learn about the development of a professional portfolio and the strategies for group facilitation of the portfolio development process. In this 24-hour course, you will develop your own professional portfolio and learn key strategies to facilitate professional portfolio development with learners/clients.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

DEB BLOWER, PLAR FACILITATOR
RED RIVER COLLEGE
C519 – 2055 NOTRE DAME AVENUE
WINNIPEG, MANITOBA R3H 0J9
204-632-2065 dblower@rrc.mb.ca